Instructions for Filing the Application

ALL APPLICANTS

Application Deadlines: The University is on rolling admissions admitting students throughout the year. However, students should apply no later than July 1 for the Fall (September) semester and no later than November 1 for the Spring (January) semester.

Students with a minimal knowledge of the English language who plan to attend the University of Bridgeport's English Language Institute, should begin the application process no later than one year before they expect to begin their University studies.

Applications will be reviewed by the Admissions Office when all application materials (including the Application Fee) have been received. You will be notified by mail whether or not you have been granted admission. If you are admitted and have submitted the appropriate financial documentation, the University will issue the "I-20 Certificate of Eligibility" or, in some cases, the DS-2019. To apply for the student visa (or J-1 exchange-visitor visa), you must present the I-20 or (DS-2019) along with all financial documents indicating proof of adequate funding to the nearest U.S. Consular office.

CHECK LIST

- Submit the Application for International Students. Include a non-refundable application processing fee — check or money order — (made payable the University of Bridgeport). An application will not be processed unless the application fee of $35.00 is included.
- Submit OFFICIAL COPIES of ORIGINAL transcripts. (See below for special instructions for Undergraduate Applicants and Graduate Applicants.)
- Submit word-for-word English translations in the same format as the document. It is important that everything on the document be translated.
- Demonstrate English language competency. All applicants must demonstrate proficiency in English or enroll in the University's English Language Institute (ELI). See page 7.
- Submit the Financial Statement for International Students and supporting documentation. See page 5.

UNDERGRADUATE APPLICANTS

In addition to the above documents required of all applicants:

- Submit OFFICIAL COPIES of the ORIGINAL secondary school and ALL post-secondary school records. Academic records (transcripts, mark sheets, examination results, diplomas, certificates) for ALL secondary and ALL post-secondary schools must be provided.
- Supply syllabi or course descriptions for ALL post-secondary academic work completed so that it may be evaluated for possible transfer of credit.

GRADUATE APPLICANTS

In addition to the above documents required of all applicants:

- Submit OFFICIAL COPIES of ALL ORIGINAL post-secondary (University) records. Academic records (transcripts, mark sheets, diplomas, certificates, examination results) for ALL college and universities attended must be provided.
- Waivers may be granted for coursework previously completed at the university level. Please bring syllabi (with exact paper, course titles) or course description material to be reviewed. Student-generated course descriptions are not acceptable.

ADDITIONAL GRADUATE REQUIREMENTS BY PROGRAM

The School of Business

- The School of Business requires all graduate candidates to submit test results of the Graduate Management Admissions Test (GMAT) before consideration for admission to the degree program. For more information about this examination, you may visit The Educational Testing Service website at: www.ets.org
- Submit two letters of recommendation from professors or employers.

The School of Engineering

- The School of Engineering recommends that candidates submit the test results of the Graduate Record Examination. For more information about this examination, you may visit The Educational Testing Service website at: www.ets.org
- Submit two letters of recommendation from professors or employers.

The School of Education and Human Resources

Counseling and Human Resources

- The program in Counseling and Human Resources may require a supplemental application. After reviewing your file, this application will be sent to you if it is felt that additional information is needed.
- Two letters of recommendation are required. The recommendation should evaluate the candidate's awareness of self and others, the understanding of interpersonal dynamics, tolerance, flexibility and cooperative ability. The letters must be from faculty at the undergraduate institution.

Educational Leadership (Ed.D.)

- The program in Educational Leadership requires test results from the Graduate Record Examination (GRE) or the Miller Analogies Test (MAT). For more information about these examinations, you may visit www.ets.org for information on the Graduate Record Examination, and www.tpcweb.com for the Miller Analogies Test.
- Applicants must include a Personal Statement that includes: reason for interest in beginning the doctoral program and a description of significant personal and professional accomplishments.
- Scholarship and achievement in the area of educational management must be demonstrated.
- Two letters of recommendation are required. No special form is required. It is suggested that recommendations come from professors or employees who can evaluate your achievement in the educational management field. Letters may be included with the application or sent directly to the Office of Admissions.

Nutrition Institute

- In addition to two letters of recommendation, please provide a Personal Statement explaining why you want to pursue a Master's degree in the Nutrition Program. Include any relevant previous experiences.

College of Chiropractic and College of Naturopathic Medicine

- These colleges have their own admissions procedures. Contact them directly at University of Bridgeport, Bridgeport, CT 06601, U.S.A.

You may email them at the following:

College of Chiropractic: chiro@bridgeport.edu

College of Naturopathic Medicine: natmed@bridgeport.edu

English Language Requirement

Proficiency in English can be demonstrated in one of the ways listed below:

1. A minimum Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) score of 500 on the paper-based test or 173 on the computer-based test is needed for undergraduate programs. Undergraduates can also demonstrate their English proficiency by attaining a Verbal SAT score of 400 or better. For post-graduate programs, a minimum TOEFL score of 550 on the paper-based test or 213 on the computer-based test is necessary. The TOEFL is administered in many places around the world. You must request that the Educational Testing Service send your score directly to the University of Bridgeport. Information on the TOEFL can be obtained by writing to:
TOEFL Services, P.O. Box 6151, Princeton, NJ 08541-6151 U.S.A.
Telephone: (609) 771-7100 <http://www.toefl.org>
The University of Bridgeport School Code is 3914
2. An acceptable score on the English Language Assessment Battery (ELAB) Test administered by the University's English Language Institute upon arrival at the University of Bridgeport.

3. Successful completion of the intensive ESL program offered by the University's English Language Institute.
If you have not met the University's English Language requirement in one of the ways listed above, you can study English on the UB campus.
4. Receipt of a grade of C or better in one semester of English Composition at an accredited U.S. college or university.

For more information about our English Language Institute, please contact:
English Language Institute (ELI), University of Bridgeport
200 Carlson Hall, 303 University Avenue, Bridgeport, CT 06601 USA
Tel: (203) 576-4860 • Fax: (203) 576-4861

CONDITIONAL ACCEPTANCE:

If you have not demonstrated English language proficiency in one of the ways described above, you can still apply for admission to the degree program of your choice at the University. If the University determines that your application shows that you meet all requirements for admission except for the English language requirement, you will be granted "Conditional Acceptance."

Conditional Acceptance provides you with the assurance that once you have met the English language requirement for admission, you will be allowed to begin academic coursework at the University.

CONDITIONAL ACCEPTANCE AND STUDY AT ELI:

If you wish to improve your English on campus, you can combine your Conditional Acceptance to the University with admission to ELI by sending your application for the University and your application for ELI together in the same envelope. This will allow you to attend ELI and improve your English with the assurance provided by your Conditional Acceptance to the University. When you have successfully completed ELI or demonstrated English language proficiency in one of the other ways described above, you will be allowed to begin academic work.
